

The iCSL Lens

What is the iCSL model?

iCSL is all about learning at the intersections of civics, service, and leadership (our key themes). To do that, we use a three-part model:

- Building a lens for civics, service, and leadership with teachers and students.
- Using iCivics education resources to teach civics and how the government works.
- Strengthening the connections between themes within the classroom.

What do we mean by civics, service, and leadership?

iCSL applies its themes broadly. Each is defined from multiple perspectives, offers countless skillsets, and includes different career pathways. You can explore the themes here:

- Civics
- Service
- Leadership

Your Pilot Experience.

Implement the iCSL Video Series and handouts in the classroom. Then choose an iCivics game or lesson plan to pilot with students using the iCSL lens.

The right curriculum for your classroom

Here is the curated list of iCivics resources for your pilot experience:

- Government and the Economy \(MS\)
- Civics Project Guide
- People's Pie \(MS / HS\)
- Women in Service DBQuest
- Branches of Power \(MS / HS\)
- iCSL Video Series
- Can you Believe it? Infographic \(MS / HS\)
- Teacher Guides
- Convene the Council\(HS\)
- Student Handouts
- Volunteerism Guide

Additional Links

- Register with iCivics
- Additional Curriculum Resources
- iCSL Eduflow Course