

Leadership and Integrity Explained

Key Concepts

What is integrity and why is it important to lead with integrity?

- Integrity is doing what is right, even when no one is looking. Each day are presented with opportunities to develop our sense of integrity through interactions with others.
- Leading with integrity reflects strong character and a value to do what right and beneficial to those you serve.

Reflection Activity

Write three situations in which you have shown or could show integrity at school, with teachers, or with peers.

1.

2.

3.

Write down why you think that leaders who lead with integrity are likely to attract more followers.

Extension Activity

Play the iCivics game Newsfeed Defenders (<https://www.icivics.org/games/newsfeed-defenders>) to try your hand at identifying false reporting, hidden ads, and viral deception. Then discuss the role you found integrity plays in media and journalism.